PLUS stock exchange heads out on second leg of UK tour targeting private investment community

London, 3rd August 2010 – The PLUS stock exchange is to begin the second leg of its programme of roadshows which bring together PLUS companies and private investors, private client brokers and analysts.

The three events, which will showcase the growth company investment opportunities to be found on the exchange, will be held in Leeds, Bristol and London during Autumn 2010. As well as meeting senior management from PLUS companies, attendees will also have the opportunity to talk to executives from PLUS.

Earlier this year PLUS held roadshows in Manchester, Edinburgh and London. At each event the private investment community listened to PLUS companies talk about their businesses and the benefits they experience from being listed on PLUS.

The following PLUS companies will present at the roadshows:

Mechan Controls – is a designer and manufacturer of electronic non-contact safety switches for use in a wide range of industrial sectors.

National Milk Records – collects and records data about dairy cows.

One Media Publishing Group – is a business to business music and video rights provider.

Sutherland Health Group – is a national supplier of sexual health, patient hygiene and diagnostic products.

Quercus Publishing – is an independent publisher.

Zeta Compliance Group – provides products and services to enable organisations to ensure that they meet their Environmental, Health and Safety obligations.

Vivienne Cassley, Senior Relationship Manager, PLUS Markets Group, said: “The private investment community provides essential support and liquidity to smaller quoted companies. So it is really important that we deliver stories of successful PLUS companies directly to this group.

“We have already seen the positive impact that our roadshows can have on both the PLUS stock exchange and our companies, and we are sure that this will be repeated following our upcoming Autumn events.”

The PLUS roadshows will be held between 12.00 and 14.30 in:

Leeds – Thursday 16th September 2010, Residence 6 Hotel

Bristol – Thursday 30th September 2010, Mercure Holland House

London – Thursday 14th October 2010, The May Fair Hotel

Three’s a Crowd, the PLUS-quoted events management firm, is the main organiser of the roadshows in partnership with PLUS. For more details about the above events, please visit:
